MAIN

LEAGUE AGAINST IMPERIALISM AND FOR NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE

QThe main object of the League against Imperialism is the furtherance of the national-revolutionary movement for independence in the colonial and semi-colonial countries.

QThere are 42 millions of people belonging to the oppressed nationalities in Europe, there are over 1,000 million colonial slaves who are writhing under the iron heel of a murderous imperialist system of oppression and exploitation.

QThe British section of the League appeals to all genuine anti-imperialist fighters to join in the struggle for:—

- 1.—The complete national independence of the colonial and semi-colonial peoples.
- 2.—The full right of self-determination for all oppressed nationalities.
- 3.—The removal of the imperialist armed forces from all colonial and semi-colonial countries.
- 4.—Complete freedom of movement for all national-revolutionary organisations, and in particular for all revolutionary working-class and peasants' organisations.

For Working Unity and The Way Out

☐ The London District Committee of the Communist Party greets members, supporters and all London workers.

☐ Our class emerges from 1933 enriched by the experiences of many struggles against capitalist attacks.

☐ In order to carry forward these struggles into a United Fighting Front we urge the London working class to give wholehearted support to the National Hunger March and Unity Conference with which the year 1934 opens.

☐ From capitalist crisis to Socialist triumph the working class will march forward only by the Revolutionary Way. Let 1934 therefore see the building of a mass Communist Party in London.

BRITISH ANTI-WAR MOVEMENT

How to FIGHT against WAR

The following is a summary of the resolution adopted at the British Anti-War Congress, held in London, March, 1933, by 1,500 Delegates, 600 Branches of Trade Unions, Co-op. Guilds, Political Parties and Peace Societies:—

- (1) Formation of Anti-War Councils in every important centre.
Stoppage of manufacture and transport of War material.
Support of any section of the workers taking effective action to stop war.
- (2) Exposure of War preparations.
- (3) Condemnation of cancellation of Anglo-Soviet Trade Agreement and defence of the Soviet Union against calumny and intervention.
- (4) Exposure of imperialist character of the League of Nations.
- (5) Secure the support of all organisations genuinely seeking to prevent War, especially Trades Union branches, Co-operative Societies and Peace Societies.
- (6) Bring an understanding of the War danger before all people in every department of life and in every Branch of the Services.

The British Anti-War Movement appeals to all workers to join in building the mass united front against War.
